

Wine & Spirits

91 | Kiona

2013 Red Mountain Reserve A pretty wine with an old-school feel, this starts out seasoned by cedar, the wood scents and soft plum accents well matched. The fruit is plush and youthful, focused by the grip of oak tannins, a structure that gives a comfortable impression, like walking into a red-wood-paneled room. For a steak.

